

WARD STAYS IN JAIL UNTIL OCTOBER

To-Night's Weather—SHOWERS.

To-Morrow's Weather—FAIR, COOLER.

THE EVENING WORLD
FINAL EDITION

The

The Evening

World.

THE EVENING WORLD
FINAL EDITION

"Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All."

VOL. LXII. NO. 22,078—DAILY.

Copyright (New York World) by Press Publishing Company, 1922.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, JUNE 17, 1922.

Entered as Second-Class Matter Post Office, New York, N. Y.

PRICE THREE CENTS

WHAT DID YOU SEE IN NEW YORK TO-DAY?—PAGE 3

SHIP SUBSIDY BILL TO GET RIGHT OF WAY IN THE HOUSE; HARDING WINS OVER FOES

Chairman Campbell Announces Committee Will Give Measure Special Rule.

MEET AT WHITE HOUSE.

Delegation Had Planned to Urge President to Put Off Legislation.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The Administration Ship Subsidy Bill will be given the right of way at this session of Congress through a special rule by the House Rules Committee, Chairman Campbell, Kansas, of the committee, indicated to-day.

Campbell was hurriedly called into conference at noon by President Harding and at the conclusion of the meeting the Chairman said special rule was the only solution.

A final appeal that the bill be allowed to go over to the next session of Congress was made to the President to-day by a group of influential House Republicans.

A group of about six members, picked to represent all the elements of Republican opposition to the subsidy—dry, members of the farm bloc, labor sympathizers and members who fear the Subsidy Bill politically—planned to call at the White House and tell the President that, in their united opinion, he would make "a serious political blunder" by pressing for enactment of the shipping measure at this time.

They planned to point out the precarious situation in which the subsidy rests, particularly since the storm broke over liquor handling on Shipping Board vessels, and try to convince Mr. Harding that forcing the bill before Congress now would bring on a dangerous test of his leadership. Mr. Harding was said to share the view of Chairman Lusk and the House Merchant Marine Committee that the sudden publicity given the selling of liquor on American ships was for the purpose of strengthening opposition to the subsidy, and he is reported to be confident that the liquor talk is not seriously jeopardizing the bill's chances of passing. The President believes, it was indicated, that the controversy over liquor on ships

(Continued on Second Page.)

Kidnaps His Wife From Golf Club In Vain Try for Reconciliation

Screaming and Struggling, Woman Carried From Links and Abandoned by Road.

CINCINNATI, June 17.—Mrs. Clara Marshall, thirty, was at her home here to-day none the worse for her experience of being abducted yesterday while in the midst of friends at the exclusive Maketewah Golf Club.

For a time, after she was spirited away, screaming and struggling, by four men in an automobile, fears were entertained for her safety, but within a few hours she telephoned relatives that she was safe, having been kidnapped and then abandoned on the roadside by her husband, Albert Marshall, hotel proprietor, who sought thus to force a reconciliation with her.

When three men leaped from an automobile yesterday afternoon, seized Mrs. Marshall and fled, golfers and caddies leaped into machines parked along the course and gave chase, but were distanced. A general police alarm then was sent out.

The mystery was solved last night when William Schawe Jr., Mrs. Marshall's brother, received a telephone message from her saying it was her husband, whom she is suing for divorce, with three other men, who ab-

DEMPSEY FIRES TRAINER HAYES AS KEARNS MAN

Split With Manager Seen in Champion's Decision to Pick Own Handlers.

LOS ANGELES, June 17 (United Press).—Jack Dempsey announced to-day the dismissal of his trainer, Teddy Hayes, creating a sensation in the champion's camp.

The announcement, following Hayes' departure for the East with Jack Kearns, the champion's manager, gave rise to further rumors of a split between Dempsey and Kearns.

Dempsey was terse in his comment. "Hayes is working for Kearns," he said. "In the future, I'll select my own handlers."

BONUS BILL DELAYED IN SENATE TILL AUGUST

Republicans Majority Said to Defeat to Harding's Wishes.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—Senate consideration of the Bonus Bill probably will be delayed until August, it appeared certain to-day.

At the instance of President Harding a majority on the Republican side has been aligned against immediate consideration, and indications are their wishes will prevail.

HOUSE BILL BARS SHIPS SELLING BOOZE FROM U.S.

Both Foreign and American Vessels Included in Ban.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—A bill denying entrance to American ports of any ship, foreign or domestic, on which liquor is sold was introduced to-day by Representative Edmunds, Pennsylvania, ranking Republican of the Merchant Marine Committee, which drafted the Ship Subsidy Bill.

IRISH REPUBLICANS BEATEN AT POLLS, BALLOTS SEIZED

Declare They Never Will Take Allegiance Oath New Constitution Prescribes.

ELECTION PEACEFUL

Cardinal Logue Again Held Up in Ulster—Five Killed on Border.

LONDON, June 17 (Associated Press).—Dublin despatches emphasize the extreme hostility of the Republicans to the draft of the Irish Constitution and predict trouble. Eamon De Valera, the Republican leader, is said to have returned hastily to Dublin from Connaught to decide upon a course of action. He is described as now busily engaged in preparing a pronouncement, meanwhile refusing to make any statement.

The Republicans generally denounce the Constitution, declaring they will never take the oath it prescribes, and some expressing the belief that Mr. De Valera will repudiate the whole document, in which case, according to one correspondent, "all hope for a practical arrangement must be abandoned."

REPUBLICANS SEIZE BALLOT BOXES AT UNIVERSITY

Believed They Wanted to Learn Who Voted Against Sinn Feiners.

DUBLIN, June 17.—Advocates of the treaty with Great Britain seem to have won a substantial victory in yesterday's election although the final result will not be known before Monday evening. As a rule the contest in Southern Ireland passed off quietly.

Armed men, led by Rory O'Connor, chief of the insurgent Irish Republican Army faction, seized the ballot boxes and papers of the Dublin University polling place last evening after the Parliamentary election had been completed and the votes counted.

The men, all in civilian clothes, asked whether the voting was over. Dr. Alexander Anderson, in charge of the voting, replied that it was, whereupon the men held him and his staff up with revolvers and removed the boxes and papers to their automobile. They drove off at once without creating any disturbance.

A copy of the returns, showing who had been elected, was left. This is taken to indicate that the Republicans merely wanted to know how university graduates had voted, as voters at the university are required to sign their ballots.

The returns show that three of the four university seats are won by Free Staters. Dr. English, one of the Republican coalition candidates, being defeated by Prof. Magennis, an Independent. Chairman John MacNeill of the Daily Eireann, Michael

(Continued on Second Page.)

TWO BANKS ROBBED; CASHIER KIDNAPPED

Two Bandit Gangs Sought by Kansas and Oklahoma Posses.

WICHITA, June 17.—Two groups of bank bandits were being sought by posses in Southern Kansas and Northern Oklahoma to-day.

Four men robbed the Citizens' State Bank at McPherson of $4,000 yesterday and fled south. Shortly afterward two bandits held up the Elgin, Kansas, State Bank and escaped after obtaining $1,500 and kidnapping D. R. Hall, cashier, and his wife.

Mrs. Hall was thrown from the bandits' car as they fled into Oklahoma. Early to-day Hall's fate was unknown.

RAIL BOARD BRANDS 2 LABOR MEMBERS AS STRIKE INCITERS

Charges Efforts to Inflammate Employees to Revolt on Wage Decisions.

DEFENDS CUTS IN PAY

Majority Alleges Sowing of Seeds That Caused Chaos in Russia.

CHICAGO, June 17 (Associated Press).—Majority members of the United States Railroad Labor Board who ordered another $27,000,000 slash yesterday from wages of the Nation's railway workers, replied to-day to criticisms of minority members of the board with the charge that the dissenting members presented "incendiary arguments in a strained and exaggerated effort to inflame the employees to strike against the decisions of the board."

The minority, constituting two of the three labor members, are accused of "sowing some of the tiny seeds that have germinated and blossomed into industrial anarchy in Russia."

Yesterday's decision, which affected wages of 325,000 railway clerks, signalmen and stationary firemen, brought total reductions effective July 1 under the board's orders to $135,000,000. Approximately 1,200,000 railway employees are affected by the orders.

Accompanying yesterday's order carrying reductions ranging from 2 to 6 cents an hour was a lengthy supporting opinion from the members representing the railroads and the public, and the dissenting opinion by the labor members condemning the order.

In their prompt rejoinder to-day the majority members said in part: "It is not incumbent upon the six members of the board concurring in this decision to follow the minority into a partisan controversy which partakes more of the characteristics of impassioned advocacy than of calm adjudication."

PART DRAFTED IN OFFICES OF FEDERATION.

"In so far as the dissenting opinion distorts the sentiments of the majority, misquotes their language and reflects upon their desire and disposition to do justice, we will refrain from comment. We prefer to believe that the majority are sincere in their part of the document which was drafted by the employees in the headquarters of the Railway Department of the American Federation of Labor and that they were overlooked by the dissenting members."

"There is one feature of the dissenting argument, however, which is so unusual that it should not be passed over without notice, and that is the portion wherein the two dis-

(Continued on Second Page.)

ROBINS HATCHED ON MOVING TRAIN; NEST ON TRUCKS

Mother Flies 12 Miles a Day to Be With Her Young.

PUNXSUTAWNEY, Pa., June 17. On the brake rigging underneath the passenger coach which comprises the "Hoodlbug" shuttle train making three daily trips from the Railroad Y. M. C. A. in Elk Run, to Rikers, two miles distant on the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh Railroad, is a robin's nest containing three small robins.

Mother robin began building her nest three weeks ago. When the train pulled out she left the nest and flew with the train to Rikers. There the nest building continued.

Soon appeared three eggs which the bird carefully covered. A few days ago three lusty robins were hatched, despite the migrations. The mother waits with worms at the end of each trip.

Harold F. McCormick Undergoes Operation in Great Secrecy by Noted Chicago Gland Specialist

Opera Patron's Identity Hidden Even From Hospital Attendants and All Facts Refused as None of Public's Affair.

CHICAGO, June 17 (United Press).—Harold F. McCormick, opera patron and Chairman of the board of the International Harvester Company, is recovering to-day from a secret operation at the Wesley Memorial Hospital. By merest chance it was learned the operation was performed by Dr. D. Lespinasse, famous surgeon, who disputed with Dr. Voronoff, French specialist, the right of discovery of the method of grafting glands of animals in men.

"It was only a minor operation and Mr. McCormick will soon be going home," officials of the hospital said to-day.

Dr. Lespinasse would not state the nature of the operation.

"It is a medical matter and does not concern the public," he said.

Preparations for the operation were under way a week before the wealthy patient entered.

Five nurses were said to be in attendance on Mr. McCormick. An entire floor of the hospital was reserved for him and no one besides his physicians and nurses were allowed to enter the floor. Three doctors were said to have been in the hospital constantly, ready to administer to the patient.

The name of the patient was kept secret from hospital attendants, and although knowing that some one of wealth was to be a patient, no one knew his name or the character of the operation.

When Dr. Voronoff claimed to have discovered the method of grafting glands on human beings, Dr. Lespinasse pointed to an article which he published in the American Medical Journal in 1912, several years before Dr. Voronoff said he had conducted his experiments, to support his contention.

Dr. Voronoff usually used glands obtained from monkeys in his operations, although other physicians used goat glands.

Mr. McCormick's wife recently obtained a divorce and reports have coupled his name with Ganna Walska (Cochran), opera singer, who was granted a divorce from her millionaire husband in Paris recently.

Prefers Farmer Or Laborer to 'Social Hounds'

Brookhart Counts Self Out of Society Stuff at Washington.

DES MOINES, Iowa, June 17.—Col. Smith W. Brookhart, nominee of Iowa Republicans for United States Senator, has higher respect for grimy overalls than for evening dress.

"I am prouder of my overalls than of my dress suit," he said. "They can count me out on the social stuff when I go to Washington. I am going in the interests of the farmers and laborers and those business men in sympathy with Progressive government."

Brookhart spoke plainly. "Washington's social lobby is the most sinister of all lobbies in Washington," he said. "It is the most contemptible of all influences. I love the society of my neighbors and of fellow men, but when a man high in public office is feted and favored for ulterior political motives he is flirting with bribery of the worst kind."

"The men who voted for me do not want me to go to Washington to pose gracefully at banquet tables and parlor parties. The real aristocrat in America is the farmer. He holds the feeding bag. He works with his head and his hands. He is really the brainiest of them all. Lawyers and business men are specialists—the successful farmer does not specialize—he is a Jack of all lines."

PATRON OF OPERA WHO UNDERGOES SECRET OPERATION

HAROLD F. MCCORMICK.

TRAIN IS ROBBED NEAR PITTSBURGH

Two Masked Men Loot Baggage Car Safe and Flee in Auto.

PITTSBURGH, June 17.—The Fairmont express on the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad was robbed near Webster, Pa., about twenty-five miles from here, at 10:40 o'clock this morning by two masked men who escaped after robbing the baggage car.

The men entered the baggage car as the train neared Webster. After binding and gagging Axel Hicks, express messenger, and M. Amber, baggage man, they looted a safe.

At Webster they jumped off at a street crossing where an automobile, containing two men, was awaiting. As the robbers entered the machine the driver started away in the direction of Pittsburgh.

American Railway Express officials said the company's loss would not exceed $100.

Important Information for Homeseekers

Hundreds of "Real Estate" and "Apartments to Let" advertisements containing information valuable to homeseekers are systematically assembled and carefully classified in The Sunday World Real Estate Section for quick and easy reference. Those anticipating the purchase of a house will do well to consult Sunday World "Real Estate" ads.

2,557 World "Real Estate" and "To Let" Ads. Last Sunday 555 More Than Corresponding Sunday Last Year

REAL ESTATE OFFERS For Number and Variety Read The Sunday World Real Estate Section

INQUEST ON PETERS'S BODY NEXT MOVE IN WARD CASE; PLOT CHARGE TO BE PUSHED

WOMEN FIGHT DUEL WITH REVOLVERS IN STREET AT NEWARK

Trouble Over Husband of One Starts Shooting, Police Charge.

Mrs. Anna Capuccio, twenty-eight, of No. 55 Webster Street, and Mrs. Maria De Salvo, twenty-three, of No. 33 Crane Street, Newark, fought a revolver duel to-day at Crane and Webster Streets, according to the police. Neither woman was wounded. The police say Mrs. Capuccio's revolver failed to explode. Mrs. De Salvo, it is alleged, fired twice, but missed.

The shooting was over Mrs. Capuccio's husband, the police say. After both women had been arrested, the police inquired in the neighborhood and reported they found Mrs. De Salvo had not been living with her husband, and had been seen frequently with Capuccio.

Mrs. Capuccio's daughter, Marie, thirteen, who stood nearby, escaped injury.

The child, according to the police, was taken by Mrs. Capuccio to the corner of Crane and Webster Streets. Mrs. Capuccio had a revolver in her waist. Reaching the corner, she paced up and down in great agitation. A few minutes later Mrs. De Salvo left her home to do some shopping.

Marie Capuccio saw Mrs. De Salvo and ran to her, exclaiming, according to the story told by neighbors, "Now you are going to get it."

Mrs. De Salvo looked down the street, saw Mrs. Capuccio at the corner and went back into her house, coming out again with the revolver.

As Mrs. De Salvo approached, Mrs. Capuccio waited nervously. The women walked within fifteen feet of each other, the police were told, and both drew their revolvers at almost the same moment.

Mrs. Capuccio, according to the police, pointed her revolver at Mrs. De Salvo and pressed the trigger, but the weapon did not fire. Mrs. De Salvo fired twice. The bullets missed.

Mrs. Capuccio was held in $2,500 bail on a charge of assault with intent to kill, and $100 bail on a charge of having a concealed weapon. Mrs. De Salvo was held in $3,000 bail on a charge of assault with intent to kill, and in $100 bail on a charge of having a concealed weapon.

"Well," said Coroner Fitzgerald to Ward, as he remembers the conversation, "you got him all right, didn't you?"

"Yes, I got him," was Ward's reply, "but another time I might not be so lucky."

"What did you kill him with?" asked District Attorney Weeks.

"A .38-calibre automatic," replied Ward.

Whatever may be the legal status of the unsigned self-exculpating statement in typewriting, the District Attorney holds that the conversation repeated above binds Ward to an admission of the killing.

The prosecution admittedly has a weak case and wants time in which to find "Charlie Ross" and "Jack," if such persons exist, and to develop other evidence. It became known to-day that Ward has had private detectives searching for the men independently of the authorities.

An idea of the defense's position is obtained from an authoritative source. It contends there not only is no evidence of murder against Ward, but none that he killed Peters under any circumstances.

They would deny that it admits Ward killed Peters. The statement says Peters ordered Ward to leave the automobile and Ward made a grab for Peters's hand, "thereby deflecting the shot from Peters's gun."

Coroner Fitzgerald Says He Will Proceed With Investigation on Tuesday or Wednesday.

Prosecutor Resumes Hearings to Force Return of Elder Ward on Charge of Conspiracy.

With Walter Ward in jail without bail, charged with the murder of Clarence Peters, whom he says he killed in self-defense May 16, and with no court opening for his trial before October, the authorities of Westchester County said to-day they thought it well to close up the present phase of the case by holding an inquest on Peters and completing the John Doe inquiry into the conspiracy charged against members of the Ward family and their associates in attempting to suppress evidence.

The inquest will be held next Tuesday or Wednesday, Coroner Fitzgerald said to-day. District Attorney Weeks intends to have a record made in the proceedings that Walter Ward, despite the protests of his attorneys, has actually admitted killing Peters.

Statements have come out of the offices of the attorneys that the statement presented to the Coroner, May 22, by Elwood Rabenold, Allen R. Campbell and John P. Brennan, of Ward's counsel, not only was not sworn to or signed by Ward, but does not say that Ward killed Peters. It merely says that the position of the two struggling in Ward's automobile became such that "Ward was enabled to return Peters's fire."

At the meeting of Ward and his attorneys with the county officials May 22, however, this is what happened, according to Coroner Fitzgerald:

The officials were in a friendly frame of mind toward Ward; they rather felt that he had performed a public service by killing a criminal, and by clearing up the mystery of the dead body found on the bank of the reservoir. The whole party were seated about a table in the Court House.

"Well," said Coroner Fitzgerald to Ward, as he remembers the conversation, "you got him all right, didn't you?"

"Yes, I got him," was Ward's reply, "but another time I might not be so lucky."

"What did you kill him with?" asked District Attorney Weeks.

"A .38-calibre automatic," replied Ward.

MISS RYAN LOSES IN FINAL MATCH

Defeated by British Tennis Star in Straight Sets—6-3, 6-8.

LONDON, June 17 (Associated Press).—Miss Elizabeth Ryan of California was defeated by Miss Kathleen McKane, the British star, in the final of the Kent tennis championship at Beckenham to-day. The English player won by the score of 6-3, 6-8.

5 o'Clock To-Day

IS THE CLOSING TIME FOR SUNDAY WORLD CLASSIFIED ADS.

POSITIVELY NO ADVERTISEMENTS ACCEPTED AFTER 5 P. M. FOR TO-MORROW'S SUNDAY WORLD. BRANCH OFFICES CLOSE EARLIER.